Rise in COVID cases: No need to panic, follow norms, says DHO

K.H. Prasad

Mysuru, June 4 (MTY&TRR)- District Health Officer (DHO) Dr. K.H. Prasad has said that citizens of Mysuru need not panic about the rising numbers of COVID cases in some parts of the State and advised them to strictly follow all COVID norms as prescribed by the Government.

Speaking to Star of Mysore this morning, the DHO said, "It is a fact that higher number of COVID cases are being reported both in India and other foreign countries for the last one week. Experts have warned of a possible fourth wave and the citizens must take required precautionary measures and protect themselves."

Giving details about the COVID situation in the district from May 27 to June 2, he said that on May 27, samples of 233 persons were tested and 3 were positive and the positivity rate stood at 1.29%. May 28: 301 samples tested, 1 positive and positivity rate was 0.33%; May 29: 138 samples tested, zero positive; May 30: 112 samples tested, 2 positive cases and positive rate was 1.79%; May 31: 229 samples tested, 4 positive cases and positivity rate was 1.75%; June 1: 228 samples tested, 4 positive cases and positivity rate was 1.75%; June 2: 165 samples tested, 4 positive cases and the positivity rate was 2.42%.

In all, during the period from May 27 to June 2, 1,406 samples were tested of which 18 were positive and positivity rate stood at 1.28%. 13 out of the 18 who tested positive were discharged and death rate is zero.

"The number of COVID-19 infected persons are rising and as such citizens should behave responsibly by strictly following all COVID protocols like wearing of masks, maintaining social distance and giving importance to hygiene. Everyone should take both doses of vaccination and also booster doses. Despite all this, we need to be extra careful," added Dr. Prasad.

"Since schools have reopened, the number of tourists will decrease which will lessen the spread of the pandemic. By vaccinating school children, they have also been protected. But despite all this, there is no room for complacency," he opined.

"Booster dose for senior citizens who have crossed 60 years and for Corona warriors is being given as per Government guidelines. In addition, adults above 18 years are also being vaccinated at private hospitals. All these will surely reduce the bad effects of Corona fourth wave. But, still citizens need to be very careful," the DHO cautioned.

EDITOR'S BOTTOMLINE

The growth of GDP by a dismal 4.1 percent in the final quarter (January to March) of 2021-22 shows that the economy has not yet stabilised and is still vulnerable. It is difficult to accept the Government's claim that the data establishes a full economic recovery. The growth rate in the final quarter is the slowest in the past 12 months. Growth for the entire financial year has now been brought down to 8.7 percent, from the earlier estimate of 8.9 percent. The Gross Value Added (GVA) by the economy rose by only 3.9 percent in the fourth quarter, though it had risen 8.1 percent in 2021-22. These are inadequate pointers to future growth and the economy has serious internal and external challenges to cope with.

There are many challenges in the current and coming quarters. Inflation is a major constraint on private consumption. Consumption growth has steadily declined in the past few months and price rise may make it worse. Inflation and the resulting higher interest rates may curb the purchasing power of the middle class and other sections. Rural demand is also likely to slow down. The resulting fall in demand will hit industry. The supply disruptions caused by the Russia-Ukraine war will continue as there is no sign of the conflict ending. Commodity prices will remain elevated and crude prices may not fall in the near future. There are warnings about a global recession. — In Deccan Herald

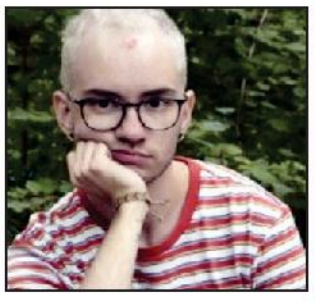
Man disguised as woman escapes from prison

San Antonio: César Ortiz, a supposed leader of the Rotela crime gang, escaped Tacumbú National Penitentiary by simply walking out through the front gate. Along with his freedom, he also earned the nickname "Gordito Lindo" or "Cute fatty", because he disguised himself as a woman in order to fool the guards. Photos and video footage released by Paraguayan authorities show the convicted criminal wearing a long hair wig, fake eyelashes, lipstick, fake fingernails and women's clothing. His disguise made such an impression on the public that the "Gordito Lindo" nickname stuck.

Although Gordito Lindo's prison escape was probably easier than even he had anticipated, his freedom was short-lived, as police captured him only a couple of hours later. He has been taken into custody and is scheduled for transfer to another penitentiary for security reasons.

Man with many personalities cannot move alone



Munich: A 22-year-old German man suffering from a rare form of Dissociative Identity Disorder (DID) or multiple personality disorder has become unable to lead a normal life, because each of his 10 different personalities is so different.

The 22-year-old describes his rare condition as a system made up of 10 different identities – Kovu, 4, Hektor, 8, Ana, 16, Cosmo, 17, Ash, 18, Jessy, 19, Leo, 21, Billy, 23, Liv, 24, and Red, 26 – each of which can take control at any one time. This makes it virtually impossible to hold down a job, as all his different personalities have different abilities and wishes, and also makes it hard for him to leave the house by himself.

Provide online access to MUDA maps and plans

Sir,

The CDP (City Development Plan) maps were earlier available on MUDA website but of late the online access to these maps have been removed. I find that land developers collude with officials and many times there is deviation from the approved plans.

Citizen's access to both CDP maps and approved plans for the hundreds of layouts being formed in Mysuru should be easily available online similar to how revenue maps and records are available online.

Getting hold of these maps and plans physically from MUDA office is a herculean task. An open transparent access to these records is very critical to ensure that the city grows in a proper and organised way as it's only the informed citizens who are the final check and balance in the system. I request the authorities concerned to please work towards making this possible.

SCREENTIME IN CHILDREN
Screen time is the total time spent per day on viewing screens such as phones, TV, computer, tablet or any visual device. Like the balanced food we eat, screens need to be appropriately chosen and seen in the correct quantity and time. Screen time spent for educational activities such as school work, interacting with friends and creating art or music is termed positive or healthy, while watching inappropriate TV shows, visiting unsafe websites or playing violent video games are examples of harmful or unhealthy screen time.
For how long can my child use screens?
- Children below the age of 2 years should not be exposed to any type of screen
- Screen time for children between 2 & 5 should not exceed 1 hour.
- Older children & adolescents need to balance screen time with other activities like playtime, sleep (8-9hours), time for school work, meals, hobbies, & family time. Unhealthy use of media can lead to addiction. If your child shows media addiction signs, you should immediately consult a pediatrician or mental health professional. Parents should act as role models for healthy media use.

Moped lifter nabbed

Nanjangud, June 4 (Sudarshan)- In a major catch, the Nanjangud Police have arrested a moped-lifter and have recovered 27 TVS mopeds stolen by him, whose total worth is Rs. 6.25 lakh. The arrested has been identified as Siddaraju alias Horeyala Sidda of Kandegala village in Nanjangud taluk.

Siddaraju, who is said to know only riding mopeds, used to lift TVS mopeds using duplicate keys, when farmers used to park them and go to their farmlands in Nanjangud and surrounding taluks. After stealing the mopeds, Siddaraju used to sell them for a throwaway price and most of these mopeds either did not have proper documents nor a registration number plate.

Alarmed by the increasing cases of moped thefts in recent days, SP R. Chethan had formed a special squad headed by Nanjangud Circle Inspector Lakshmikanth Talwar to crack the thefts. The team was on a routine vehicle checking drive near Hejjige bridge on Nanjangud Bypass Road on June 2, when Siddaraju who was reportedly riding a moped without number plate, was intercepted by the Police.

During interrogation, Siddaraju spilled the beans on his two-wheeler lifting spree, following which a total of 27 TVS mopeds, allegedly stolen by him, were recovered from different places in the taluk.

With the arrest of Siddaraju, the Nanjangud Police have solved 23 cases of moped theft registered in Gundlupet Police Station and two each in Nanjangud and Chamarajanagar Town Police Stations.

Superintendent of Police (SP) Chethan has announced a cash reward of Rs. 5,000 to the team which cracked the moped thefts. The team also comprised PSIs Chelvaraju and Vijayaraju, ASI Hafizulla Shariff, Constables Sushilkumar, Nagendra and Chetan Kumar.

Couple conned of Rs. 38 lakh after assuring two house plots

Mysuru, June 4 (BCT)- A couple lost their hard-earned savings to two individuals who promised two house sites on Ramanuja Road. The couple was taken to the Sub-Registrar's Office where a fraudulent registration was done with fabricated documents after taking Rs. 38 lakh from them. The couple has now approached the Krishnaraja Police Station.

H.R. Ramesh, a retired employee of J.K. Tyre and a resident of Ramanuja Road and his wife B.G. Malathi, a retired BSNL employee, have accused Raghavendra Shet, a resident of Ramakrishnanagar E and F Block and Siddaraju, a resident of K.R. Mohalla of cheating and lodged the complaint.

The couple had one Javaramma as the housemaid and she was working at their house for over 20 years. When Javaramma was aged and was not in a position to work, her daughter Bhagya took over her place. Bhagya soon earned the trust of the couple and after some months, she asked for a loan of Rs. 12.50 lakh.

As her mother was serving them for 20 years and trusting Bhagya, the couple paid Rs. 12.50 lakh as a loan. After some months when they asked for repayment, Bhagya told them that she had given the money to one Siddaraju who was not returning the money and as such, she had informed one Raghavendra Shet to make Siddaraju pay up.

Bhagya even introduced Raghavendra Shet to the couple and he told them that it was not easy to make Siddaraju pay up. He demanded Rs. 3 lakh for the task and as the couple was fed up and was scared of losing Rs. 12.50 lakh, they agreed to pay Rs. 3 lakh and accordingly, issued a cheque.

After negotiating with Siddaraju, Raghavendra Shet told Ramesh and Malathi couple that Siddaraju does not have money but has two house sites on Ramanuja Road, each measuring 30x40.

The couple was told that Siddaraju would register the two sites in their name in lieu of the money. Ramesh and Malathi agreed and as they were residents of the same road, they felt that they had got a good deal.

Later, a price of Rs. 38 lakh was fixed and the couple promptly paid the money. On July 28, 2021, the couple was asked to come to Mysuru South Sub-Registrar Office and Siddaraju and Raghavendra Shet 'registered' two plots in the name of H.R. Ramesh and B.G. Malathi (the couple). But Siddaraju and Raghavendra Shet did not show any documents for the claim that the former owned the plots.

The couple was promised by Raghavendra Shet that the original documents would be shown in some days. The couple later realised that the registration at Sub-Registrar's office was made using a fake document. Following this revelation, the couple lodged a Police complaint at K.R. Police Station.

Inspector Mahadevaswamy told SOM that the complaint has been registered and investigation is on. Siddaraju and Raghavendra Shet have not been arrested yet, he added.

West Bengal firm cheats Mandya diagnostic centre of Rs. 1.5 crore

The company had promised to deliver CT scan, MRI scanning machines but duped the centre

Mandya, June 4 (BCT)- A medical devices manufacturing company in West Bengal has allegedly cheated a Mandya healthcare facility of Rs. 1.5 crore in the name of supplying hi-tech medical equipment. A complaint has been lodged at Mandya West Police Station in this regard.

In his complaint, Dr. Satish, Managing Director of Unnati Global Healthcare (a diagnostic centre) located at Vidyanagar, has stated that his firm has been cheated of Rs. 1.50 crore by the Managing Director, Chairman and Directors of Elesonic Healthcare Private Limited which manufactures medical equipment. The company is based in Bakhrahat-Raipur Road, Nodakhali in West Bengal.

Unnati Global Healthcare had initiated talks with Elesonic Healthcare Private Limited to supply CT scan and MRI scanning machines.

As per the agreement, the West Bengal company consented to supply the machines at a total cost of Rs. 3.5 crore and sought an advance payment of Rs. 50 lakh.

Both the diagnostic centre and the company signed an agreement on Aug. 4, 2021, regarding the deal and Rs. 50 lakh was paid in advance.

After some months, Elesonic Group representatives called Dr. Satish to inform him that the CT scan and MRI scanning machines were ready and would be sent to Mandya by road.

A payment of Rs. 1 crore was sought to send the machine as per the agreement. Accordingly, Dr. Satish made arrangements to transfer the money to that company account. But even after many days, the machines did not arrive in Mandya.

Later, after negotiations, the West Bengal-based company admitted that it was not capable of manufacturing CT Scan and MRI scanning machines but still had entered into an agreement with the Mandya diagnostic centre.

When legal action was threatened, that company promised to return the Rs. 1.5 crore along with interest. Dr. Satish agreed and Elesonic Healthcare issued three cheques. But to Dr. Satish's dismay, all the three cheques bounced.

Later, Dr. Satish filed a Police complaint against Elesonic Group Chairman Kaushik Ganguly, Managing Director Anjana Ganguly and Directors Suvendu Das and Sudhir Kumar.

The Mandya West Police have registered a case under IPC Sections 406 (criminal breach of trust) and 422 (fraudulently preventing payment of debts) and are investigating.

Efforts on to ensure Mysore Palace, Mysuru Yoga and Brand Mysuru will get international recognition

The photos and videos of the event will go viral across the world and the District Officers are leaving no stone unturned to ensure that the Mysore Palace, Mysuru Yoga and Brand Mysuru will get international recognition.

Usually, the parks and the Palace surroundings are beautified every year only for Dasara and sometimes for the New Year and for the remaining months, they remain unattended.

Now, over 30 agriculture and horticulture field workers have been hired to do various tasks inside the Palace, around temples, and at parks where facilities are being made for Yoga enthusiasts to perform on the D-Day.

The District Administration has decided to allow 12,000 Yoga participants inside the Palace for the mass performance and this time, there will not be any record-breaking feat. Rather, the entire administration will focus on the Palace event.

The vacant land — particularly opposite the place where the Dasara procession begins with the Golden Howdah-carrying elephant — is being dug up to lay the lawns and plant saplings.

These saplings have already been grown at various Horticulture Department offices and also the Palace Board office. The saplings will be brought to the location and planted here so that they can flower on June 20 and 21, making the Yoga performance colourful. The path from Jayamarthanda Gate till the front portion of Palace will get a special look with a variety of flowers. Flower pots will be placed in an attractive manner. There are plans to place the pots, symbolising Yoga asanas.

Space for Yoga inside park

The park near Bhuvaneshwari Temple is getting a makeover as the authorities are planning to allow the Yoga performers inside. The grass that has overgrown is being trimmed so that a comfortable grass bed is created for the performers to spread their mats and perform.

Likewise, the place where elephants are tied for Dasara is being beautified along with the park. Many medians and culverts are getting a fresh coat of paint. Interlock tiles are being laid on the path behind Bhuvaneshwari Temple and Kote Anjaneyaswamy Temple till Kodi Someshwara Temple and the road that leads to Jayamarthanda Gate.

A couple of defunct fountains inside the Palace are being repaired and cleaned to restore them to their original shape. They too will get a fresh coat of paint and will be ready to spring water on the main Yoga Day.

Though the event is held early in the morning, the authorities have decided to replace defunct lights inside the Palace compound and also inside parks and gates. The absence of lights will prove a security risk.

4 am gathering

Also, as all the Yoga performers have been told to come to the Palace at 4 am for the PM's event that is scheduled to begin at 7 am. Lights are required for the Yoga Gurus to allot places for performance.

Also, the performers will be allocated dedicated blocks and the Police teams will be present on the Palace premises from June 20 night to oversee arrangements.

While the Yoga enthusiasts were hoping to break another record this time, it was overruled by the authorities. As the Prime Minister is participating in the Mass Yoga, there is an atmosphere of seriousness and the security will be water-tight with no loopholes.

Govt. dissolves Textbooks Revision Committee

Bengaluru, June 4- Fearing backlash by two of the most dominant communities — Vokkaligas and Lingayats — regarding the row over actions of Rohith Chakrathirtha headed Textbooks Revision Committee, the State Government on Friday dissolved the Committee in a bid to end the raging controversy over school textbooks revision.

CM Basavaraj Bommai, who presided over a meeting at Bengaluru to discuss the row, issued the order scrapping the Committee, late yesterday evening. The decision is seen as the ruling BJP's efforts to neutralise the threat of backlash from the two powerful communities.

Last week, alarm bells rang in the BJP when Adichunchanagiri Seer Nirmalanandanatha Swamiji of Vokkaliga community wrote to CM Bommai seeking action against those who affronted Rashtrakavi Kuvempu, whose State Anthem (Nadageethe) was distastefully recast to mock the Congress. Textbooks Revision Committee Chairman Rohith Chakrathirtha had made a social media post about this in 2017, which had gone viral.

On Friday, Tumakuru Siddaganga Mutt's Siddalinga Swamiji had spoken out against distorting textbook content, especially those concerning on 12th century social reformer Basavanna.

UNDERTRIALS' Compensation and Punishment

On May 27, Shah Rukh Khan's son Aryan Khan was cleared of all charges due to insufficient evidence in the infamous "cruise ship drug bust" case. Immediately after the verdict, Sanjay Gupta, a film-maker tweeted, "So Aryan Khan is and was innocent, says Bombay High Court. Who compensates for what he went through, his family went through?"

This is an essential question to consider in a country like India, where 62% of prisoners are undertrials. They usually turn out to be innocent or the case against them is dismissed due to insufficient evidence, but they are imprisoned while the trial goes on and on and on. Who will compensate them for their lost time and trauma?

Last year, Vishnu Tiwari from UP, who was jailed in 2001 and convicted of rape, was acquitted of the crime; it was a false case but he had spent 20 years in jail.

Worse is the case of Jagjivan Ram Yadav, who was arrested in 1968 in Faizabad for allegedly killing his sister-in-law. He never faced trial because the authorities lost his papers! But nevertheless, they kept Yadav in prison, awaiting the authorities to find his lost papers for 38 years. When he was arrested, he was the father of a two-year-old boy. In 2006 when Yadav was given bail, he was 70 years old and his two-year-old son was 40!

Can anything be so unjust and cruel? It's like being dead while living. Someone's got to pay. The Supreme Court granted him bail, nothing else, no compensation, no punishment for the officers who "lost his papers" and kept him in prison for 38 years.

So, Aryan Khan's 20 days in jail is nothing compared to the above cases of how inhumane our justice system can be? How callous our Police Officers and investigating agencies can be?

It is time, our Courts take such incompetent and insensitive officers to task and provide compensation to the victims when the Government and its arms have wronged them. Unfortunately, these questions only come to our leaders' minds when a celebrity is in trouble.

Many may recall, back in 2013, our Parliamentarians were busy trying to get a pardon for Sanjay Dutt in the 1993 Mumbai blast case. Surprisingly, the first official support petition was put forth by none other than former Supreme Court Judge Justice Markandey Katju! Justice Katju stated that Sanjay Dutt had "suffered a lot and had to undergo various tribulations and indignities."

Where was this sensitivity of our Parliamentarians and Justice Katju when newspapers just two years earlier had reported that 70% of inmates in India's prisons had not been convicted of any offence and were in jail as undertrials? Why didn't anyone speak up about finding ways to release these prisoners and compensate them?

Speaking of compensation and how Governments waste citizens' money to settle personal scores, I am reminded of the Bombay High Court quashing Brihanmumbai Municipal Corporation's (BMC) order to demolish actor Kangana Ranaut's office and asking BMC to pay her compensation of Rs. 2 crore.

Here is the kicker that shows how callous our politicians and bureaucrats are with our money. The BMC hired an Advocate named Aspi Chinoy to represent them in the Rs. 2 crore compensation case. BMC lost the case. But guess how much BMC paid to the lawyer to defend them, so they don't have to pay Rs. 2 crore compensation to Kangana Ranaut? BMC paid Advocate Chinoy Rs. 82.50 lakh! Almost 50% of the compensation amount!

When so many tax-payers' money is wasted to fight frivolous cases, why can't they use that money to bail out poor petty thieves who are just trying to feed their families? When Salman Khan can do it, why not the Government? Salman Khan's NGO once paid Rs. 40 lakh to bail out 400 undertrials in UP.

It's time people filed compensation cases like ISRO scientist Nambi Narayanan did. In 1994, Narayanan was falsely charged with espionage and then investigated by the CBI, then discharged. But then the State Government ordered a re-investigation which the SC quashed. Yet, no action was taken against the Police officials.

But in 2018, the SC awarded him a compensation of Rs. 50 lakh and constituted a committee headed by a former Judge of the SC to find ways and means to take appropriate steps against the erring officials. Actions are still waiting to be taken.

While our Government refuses to pay compensation to their own citizens when they botch up a case, they are forced to pay when they deal with international courts, as it happened in the Naval War-room Leak case.

In this case, one Lt. Commander Ravi Shankaran, an ex-Naval Officer, stole documents from the Directorate of Naval Operations, New Delhi (aka, Navy War-room) and gave them to Thales, the maker of Scorpène-class submarine, enabling them to clinch a 3 billion euro Submarine Deal with the Indian Navy!

It turns out Ravi Shankaran was caught twice by CBI, and he escaped both times! Then he finally surrendered in London and India tried to get him extradited. After many hearings, the British Court quashed that extradition order as the two-member bench ruled: "Prima facie, there is no case against Ravi Shankaran."

So after ten years, our investigating agency couldn't even make a case that proved "prima facie" there was a case?! Not just that, the British Court ordered the CBI to pay over a crore to Shankaran for the legal costs incurred by him!

The victims of Government apathy and their families have to suffer ostracisation from society. The children grow up without a father; a mother has to make ends meet as a breadwinner while trying to pay a lawyer to get her husband out. Someone's gotta pay for this crime, and it is a crime perpetrated by the Government through its officers against its citizens.

The Government has to pay up and the erring officers must be punished. But will they? No way. We are not a mature, kind and humane democracy. We never were. We fear we'll never be.

CM's high-level meet in Mysuru on June 8

Regarding the Prime Minister's itinerary, MP Pratap Simha said that as of now there is no visibility on the point-to-point details of the PM's visit as the final call will be taken by the Prime Minister's Office (PMO) and the Special Protection Group (SPG).

PMO and SPG will publish the itinerary after the officials visit Mysuru days ahead of the PM's visit and details will be known only then. Yesterday, Somashekar had said that a maximum of 15,000 people can be accommodated inside the Palace and this includes 3,000 VIPs.

Precaution against rain

Based on the directive issued by the Centre and also the State authorities, the Mysuru District Administration has identified two alternative venues for mass Yoga performance taking into account the weather conditions.

While the main venue will be at the Mysore Palace as decided earlier, Chamundi Vihar Indoor Stadium and the Durbar Hall of the Mysore Palace will be Plan B and Plan C respectively in case it rains. Officials said that all depends on the weather of June 20. If it rains, then the alternative places will be put to use.

The idea of Durbar Hall was mooted at the meeting with the Deputy Commissioner recently where the officials opined that anyhow PM Modi will be in the Palace premises on June 21 and if it rains, he can move to Durbar Hall with a limited crowd, sources said.

City Police Commissioner inspects Chamundi Vihar Indoor Stadium

Mysuru, June 4 (RK&BCT)- City Police Commissioner Dr. Chandragupta, DCP (Law and Order) Pradeep Gunti, DCP (Crime and Traffic) M.S. Geetha Prasanna and team visited the Chamundi Vihar Indoor Stadium on Thursday to inspect the facilities there.

The Police team inspected all the basic facilities available and also took stock of the approach roads to the Stadium, its entry and exit points and other details. The Commissioner spoke to Department of Youth Empowerment and Sports (DYES) Assistant Director K. Suresh regarding the facilities and how they can be improved in case the venue changes from the Palace to the Stadium. Like the approach roads to the Palace are getting a facelift, the roads leading to Chamundi Vihar Indoor Stadium will also get a makeover.

All petty shops from the Nazarbad Police Station till the office of the Superintendent of Police will be cleared and the route will be cleared off any suspicious structures. This apart, the Police team also inspected the parking facilities at the Stadium.

Man loses Rs. 1.46 lakh in bank 'KYC update'

Mysuru, June 4 (BCT)- A complaint has been lodged at District Cybercrime, Economic Offences and Narcotics (CEN) Police Station by a person who lost Rs. 1.46 lakh to cyber criminals who siphoned off the money after seeking KYC (Know Your Customer) details.

S. Anil Kumar, a resident of Saligrama Town in Vijayanagar Block, had an account in State Bank of India (SBI) and he had installed SBI YONO, the mobile banking app of the bank and was doing transactions. On May 29, the app was malfunctioning and Anil Kumar received a message on his other mobile phone that his KYC details had expired and had to be updated. Without second thought and despite repeated warnings from banks that banks do not ask for KYC details and they must not be provided to strangers, Anil went ahead and entered his KYC details on the link provided in the message.

Within minutes after entering the details, Rs. 1.22 lakh was withdrawn from his bank account and after some time, Rs. 24,995 was withdrawn. Anil Kumar received a message that a total of Rs. 1.46 lakh was withdrawn from his SBI account.

He has now approached the District CEN Police who are tracking the money.

Dilemma over an injured elephant at Dubare Camp

Senior officers want to shift pachyderm to Kabini; Wildlife activists oppose move

Kushalnagar, June 4 (Akshay & BCT)- An elephant, whose right hind leg is broken, is recuperating at the Dubare Elephant Camp near Kushalnagar. Though initial reports said that the injury was sustained when the pachyderm was captured in the last week of May, Forest officers said that the elephant was injured three months ago and it is now being taken care by the Forest Department.

However, some senior officers of the Department are in favour of shifting the elephant, aged about 15 to 16 years, to Kabini Reserve Forests, much to the chagrin of wildlife activists who are against this move. They said that if the injured elephant is left inside the jungle, it will die a slow death out of hunger.

This elephant was a part of the herd that frequently raided crops across villages in and around Cheyandane. The Department subsequently got permission to capture three wild elephants. Accordingly, the operation was conducted in the last week of May to capture the three jumbos.

While one jumbo died allegedly due to an overdose of tranquillisers, the other is this female elephant. During the operation, the tourist spot of Chelavara Falls was off-limits to the tourists.

It was one of the most tedious operations and the area was full of slopes amidst coffee estates, and one small mistake would have sent the injured elephant packing down the slopes. Somehow they managed to bring the elephant to Dubare on May 29 at 3 am and it was put inside a kraal (wooden log enclosure).

No scope for surgery

Initially, the Department officers said that the elephant has to be operated on. But as the veterinarians said that the injury was sustained three months ago and as such, flesh has grown on the fractured part, the Department shelved the idea of surgery. The pachyderm now limps to walk and was unable to catch up with its herd.

"The herd waited for this elephant for three days and have now headed towards Kerala via Bhagamandala. The right hind leg bone is dislocated and flesh has covered the area and it is risky to operate. As it was limping, it could not feed well in the wild and we are doing our best to feed and take care of it," Range Forest Officer Shivaram told Star of Mysore.

However, senior forest officers are against the idea of keeping the elephant in Dubare. They are exerting pressure to shift the elephant to the wild in the Kabini range. Sources said that each day, the Department requires Rs. 5,000 to Rs. 7,000 to feed one elephant and with the Government funds hard to come and with the irregular release of money even for routine tasks at the Dubare Camp, it will be difficult to bear the extra burden of this injured elephant.

'Don't kill it'

But wildlife activists are against the shifting as the elephant is injured and is not in a position to fill its tummy on its own due to the bone dislocation. "If your family member falls ill, will you leave her/him in the forest," questioned Wildlife First head K.M. Chinnappa, a decorated Forest Officer, whose lifetime effort significantly contributed to the growth of Nagarahole Tiger Reserve.

"The Forest Department must shoulder the responsibility and not think commercially every time. Karnataka's elephants are its responsibility and it must take care of the injured elephant at Dubare and give it food and medical care. Shifting it to Kabini will kill the elephant and precious life is lost," Chinnappa added.

Some mahouts in Dubare, on condition of anonymity, said that the elephant is young and can easily be tamed. "Of course, it limps and by its looks, it has adjusted to the injury and is efficiently using its three legs. With proper medical care, protection from rain and good food, the injured pachyderm can see a new life," a mahout said.

Leopards on the prowl in agri field

Residents of Hadajana and Uttanahalli villages in Mysuru taluk have spotted leopards roaming in the field of one Swamy of Hadajana village in broad daylight since three days. The agricultural field is very close to the above two villages and the residents are afraid to come out of their houses, fearing the leopards on the prowl. The villagers have urged the Forest Department authorities to capture the leopards and release them elsewhere before any untoward incidents take place.

Villagers rescue spotted deer injured in accident

Hunsur, June 4 (Hanagod Mahesh&Raghu)- A spotted deer which was injured after it was hit by an unidentified vehicle in Arabhitittu Reserve Forest area on Hunsur-Mysuru Road on Thursday morning, has been rescued by villagers.

It is suspected that the deer was hit by a vehicle when it was crossing the road and the vehicle driver, fearing action from the Police and Forest authorities, may have sped away without stopping.

Meanwhile, motorists and villagers, who were passing by the road, saw the deer lying on the roadside and on closer examination of the animal, they found that the deer was injured.

They provided water to the deer and informed the Forest Department officials, who rushed to the spot and took the deer inside the forest area. Later, Forest Department's veterinarian was summoned, who treated the deer for its injuries.

Forest personnel said that the deer had suffered minor injuries and added that the animal would recover soon.

Nalwadi remembered on 138th birth anniversary

Mysuru, June 4 (PM&DM)- With the model code of conduct in force for the Legislative Council Polls from South Graduates Constituency, the official celebration of 138th birth anniversary of erstwhile Mysore Maharaja Nalwadi Krishnaraja Wadiyar was a low-key affair in the city this morning.

Speaking on the occasion, Somashekar said that the contributions of Nalwadi for the overall development of the State remains unmatched even today.

Pointing out that during his reign Nalwadi worked towards alleviating poverty, betterment of rural livelihood, improvement of public health, industry, economic regeneration, education and fine arts, he said that Mysuru made rapid strides in all fields during Nalwadi Krishnaraja Wadiyar's period.

Noting that Nalwadi was popularly called as 'Rajarshi' for his administrative reforms and achievements, Somashekar said that Nalwadi (June 4, 1884 to Aug. 3, 1940) had set up an educational and health infrastructure that will ever be remembered by the over 6 crore population of the State. Nalwadi was an accomplished musician himself and patronised fine arts, he added.

MP Pratap Simha, MLAs S.A. Ramdas, L. Nagendra and Tanveer Sait, In-charge Mayor Sunanda Palanetra, City BJP President T.S. Srivatsa and a host of political leaders were present on the occasion.

Ursu Mandali

The city's Ursu Mandali Sangha too celebrated Nalwadi Krishnaraja Wadiyar birth anniversary at a programme held at Nalwadi Krishnaraja Wadiyar Bhavan on Thyagaraja Road.

The celebrations were marked by the offering of floral tributes to the portrait of Nalwadi.

Speaking as a guest on the occasion, MLA S.A. Ramdas said that there is a long-standing demand to name the Mysore Airport after Nalwadi Krishnaraja Wadiyar and a proposal in this regard has also been sent to Prime Minister Modi.

Maintaining that the PM has responded positively for the proposal, Ramdas said that Modi may himself announce the naming of the Airport after Nalwadi when he is scheduled to visit Mysuru for the International Yoga Day event at the Mysore Palace on June 21.

MLC Dr. D. Thimmaiah, is his address, wanted the State Government to declare a public holiday on June 4 for Nalwadi Jayanthi. The Government must also officially celebrate the Jayanthi across the State, he added.

District Kannada Sahitya Parishat President Maddikere Gopal, Corporator B.V. Manjunath, Ursu Mandali Sangha President HMT Lingaraje Urs, Dr. M.G.R. Urs and others were present.

After the stage programme, a grand procession was taken out carrying the portrait of Nalwadi on a decorated Sarot. The procession, which started from the Mandali Office on Thyagaraja Road, passed through Agrahara Circle, Pathashala Circle and Sayyaji Rao Road before culminating at K.R. Circle. The procession was accompanied by a host of folk troupes.

Palace premises

Floral tributes were offered to the bust of Nalwadi in the Palace premises at the celebrations organised by the Palace Board.

Sweets were distributed to members of the public. Palace Board Deputy Director T.S. Subramanya, Engineers Vinod and Shivakumar, staff Gangadharaswamy and Rajesh and others were present.

Special lecture at UoM

The Department of Studies in History, University of Mysore (UoM), in association with UoM's Nalwadi Krishnaraja Wadiyar Social Development Studies Centre, had organised a special lecture at Nalwadi Krishnaraja Wadiyar Hall in History Department in Manasagangothri campus this morning.

History Dpartment head Dr. Sadashiva, faculty Prof. Y.H. Naikwadi and others were present on the occasion.

DC offers floral tribute: Earlier, officials of the District Administration led by Deputy Commissioner (DC) Dr. Bagadi Gautham offered floral tributes to the statue of Nalwadi at K.R. Circle. Marking the birth anniversary, the Kannada and Culture Department had organised a 'Geetha Namana' programme at K.R. Circle. Members of the city's Padmapani Lalithakala Academy rendered songs on Nalwadi.

ZP CEO B.R. Poornima, Kannada and Culture Assistant Director H. Channappa and other officials were present.

Nadal reaches 14th French Open final

after Zverev quits with horror injury

Paris, June 4- Rafael Nadal reached his 14th French Open final on Friday when Alexander Zverev was forced to quit their last-four clash after suffering a sickening right ankle injury on a day of drama at Roland Garros.

On Sunday, Nadal will play in his 30th Grand Slam final when he tackles Casper Ruud, the first Norwegian man to make a championship match at the majors.

Nadal was 7-6 (10/8), 6-6 ahead when Zverev was forced to quit.

Zverev turned his ankle as he chased down the ball in front of the players' boxes on Court Philippe Chatrier where his shocked team and family were sitting. As his piercing screams of pain echoed around the 15,000-seater court, a tearful Zverev was taken off the court in a wheelchair as a concerned Nadal looked on.

Casper Ruud to take on Nadal

Casper Ruud became the first Norwegian man to reach a Grand Slam final on Friday when he set-up a French Open title clash with 13-time champion Rafael Nadal, the man he described as his "idol".

World number eight Ruud defeated Croatia's Marin Cilic 3-6, 6-4, 6-2, 6-2 in a semi-final which was held up when a protester ran onto the court and tied herself by the neck to the net.

She wore a shirt which bore the slogan: "We have 1028 days left" before being eventually cut free by security staff.

The match resumed after a 15-minute delay. Ruud fired 16 aces and 41 winners past 2014 US Open champion Cilic.

CRICKET TALK

By V.N. Prasad

IPL 2022: A great season but ended a damp squib

Expectations rose to meteoric heights as players — seasoned and young guns — went under the hammer at Bengaluru. Combinations changed as franchises called fancy prices sending chills up the spines of fans and historians.

Number of teams rose to 10 as Gujarat Titans and Lucknow Super Giants were formed. 74 games from 26th of March to the 29th of May were filled with glittering performances, utter failures, last ball nail biters, frenzy in the crowd et al.

But, for cricket enthusiasts it was a two months festival — bringing out glorious uncertainties of the popular game. No doubt OMICRON restricted the venues of the preliminaries to 4 venues. But, the playoffs and the finals at the Eden Gardens/Kolkata and Motera/Narendra Modi Stadium, Ahmedabad, saw jam-packed stadia that left one wondering if COVID had all turned 'hunky dory' between March and May. Was the BCCI/Government too cautious to deny spectators at other venues the golden opportunities! Well, it is all water under the bridge now.

I have watched several closing ceremonies in India. I should say that the one on the 29th of May at Narendra Modi Stadium was the best; short and sweet. Both Ranveer Singh and A.R. Rahman & troupes performed well. Especially 'Ma Tujhe Salaam' and 'Vande Mataram' evoked a lot of National Pride — watched in all awe by the foreign players at the Stadium.

Festivity was well-spread across the oval. Colours were resplendent and pleasing. 30 minutes of excellent entertainment was witnessed by 1,25,000 strong spectators at Motera and millions across the world.

At 7.30 pm, atmosphere was agog as the coin went up. Sanju Samson called RIGHT but went WRONG opting to bat first. Yes, as opined by Commentator Simon Doull, the pitch was hard and humidity was not high that help ball coming nicely on to the bat. But, on the day, many felt that he should have opted to bowl first. All the theories were laid to rest within the first 5 overs of the finals. Writing was on the wall as Rajasthan Royals (RR) buckled to 130 at 20 Overs.

Sadly, Gujarat Titans (GT) made a proverbial 'heavy weather' of the innocuous run-chase consuming 18.1 overs to drive the last nail. Eventually, it was all a 'boring end.' Should have been something like 'Match No. 3 — Royal Challengers Bangalore (RCB) 205 & Punjab Kings (PBKS) 208 or Match No. 7 — Chennai Super Kings (CSK) 210 and Lucknow Super Giants (LSG) 211'. Alas, it was not. In the melee, skipper Hardik Pandya stole the show; both with the ball and with the bat. He deserved the Man of the Match (MoM) award.

Vastly altered matrices of players post auctions across the format caused several lacklustre encounters; especially from popular teams. Whereas one expected stiff competition to the GT and LSG from names like Mumbai Indians (MI), CSK, Kolkata Knight Riders (KKR), Delhi Capitals (DC), it was the other way — as both the new entrants GT and LSG stared in the eyes of stalwart names. A few performances were not only match winning but also were exquisite.

Jos Buttler — the Englishman who flopped in all the formats in the Ashes Series — glittered with four magnificent centuries (well, I don't care about chances in T20 format). Orange

Cap, Most Valuable Player, Most Boundaries and Sixes to his credit were all imperious to say the least. He richly deserved the Rs. 95 lakh he earned bagging 37 individual awards. Undoubtedly, Jos was the architect behind RR qualifying for the finals. His hundred against RCB was the best. Thanks to him for the entertainment.

David Miller: Since 2016, Miller's performances were too inconsistent over 5 years. GT and RR were fiercely bidding for him at Rs. 2.6 crore and Rs. 2.8 crore. We were shocked when GT closed on him at Rs. 3 crore. He surely was on a slippery surface; but blossomed beautifully. Needing 16 off the final over against the RR in the 1st qualifier, Miller smote 3 consecutive sixes off Prasidh Krishna in the 189 run chase belting 68 off 38 deliveries. Averaging 68 with a strike rate of 143, Miller provided great entertainment. Thanks to him.

Rajat Patidar: He single handedly steered RCB to 207 with a magnificent knock of 112 at 207 strike rate. In the tournament, Patidar exhibited his class in middling the ball extremely well. He looks a highly confident youngster who needs to concentrate and be consistent to attract the attention of the selection committee. Good luck to him.

Our Pacers: Youngsters Umran Malik and Mohsin Khan devastated best of batsmen across the board. While Umran clocked 157 kmph against DC, highest in the tournament, Mohsin has a beautiful swing and carry to cause discomfiture to the best of batsmen. Mohammed Siraj was unimpressive and seems to be losing sheen. Mohammed Shami has always been unpredictable — but can raise brows at crucial times. Prasidh Krishna impressed only in patches; but needs consistency. Probably, he was pampered by Buttler too early in the tournament.

Fading Stars: M.S. Dhoni needs to make up his mind. Time has come for the question "WHY NOT" than "WHY". He should hang up his boots honourably. Virat Kohli is all at sea. He looked like a novice with 3 consecutive ducks. And the way he poked at Prasidh Krishna in the qualifier was too poor for the class that he has amassed. Ravindra Jadeja (Jaddu) proved beyond doubts that he is NOT a captain material. His performance was too unimpressive. Ravichandran Ashwin (Ash) was more impressive with the willow than with the ball.

Much more to mention but enough in this column. All in all, ups and downs in careers are to be accepted with grace. We only hope to watch good quality of encounters. Consistency amongst the best in business will only add flavour. We wish our boys all the very best against South Africa (SA) and later in England.
